Winter Reading for Adults at Anoka County Library

Bundle up for winter and spend some cold dark nights with a good book or two!

Winter Jackets, Anoka County Library's winter reading program for adults, begins January 11th and runs through February 28th, 2010. Celebrate reading this winter by participating in Winter Jackets and add even more enjoyment to your reading!

Participants in Winter Jackets receive a bookmark and a short review form to complete about a book they've read during the program. When submitted, the review form serves as an entry into a prize drawing for Barnes & Noble gift cards. All library users ages 17 and older are encouraged to participate.

In celebration of reading this winter, Anoka County Library will have visits from must-read local authors Jim Bruton, MaryJanice Davidson, Brian Freeman, and Julie Kramer. These events are free and open to the public. Join in the Winter Jackets fun and meet some of Minnesota's talented authors.

"We take so little time for ourselves these days, that the simple act of reading a book can be both tranquil and refreshing," said Anoka County Commissioner and Library Liaison Jim Kordiak. "We need to recognize the importance of taking care of ourselves, and reading a book is not only educational, but also refreshing and rewarding."

For more information about Winter Jackets or other library programs, call (763)717-3267 or visit your local Anoka County Library or the website at www.anoka.lib.mn.us.
